

FINES AND JAIL FOR VIOLATORS OF EXCISE LAW

County Judge at Riverhead,
L. I., Levies Penalties
Amounting to $12,000.

Heavy sentences were imposed to-day
County Judge Grifing at Riverhead, L. I., on Southampton liquor dealers found guilty of violating the liquor law.

The town of Southampton is dry, and most of the accused dealers had pleaded guilty. The fines imposed by the Court amounted to about $12,000, and several offenders, besides being fined, received terms of imprisonment in the county jail.

The heaviest punishment was inflicted on John Barrett, who formerly practiced as a lawyer. He was fined $1,000 for selling liquor at Good Ground, which is in Southampton town, and also sentenced to ninety days in the county jail for perjury.

It was shown that Barrett within a year had disposed of 200 kegs of beer, several barrels of whiskey, two barrels of rum and a quantity of other goods. When questioned, Barrett testified that he had not sold all the beer, whiskey and other stuff himself.

Other sentences imposed were: Joseph Lewis, of East Hampton, a "dry" town, $1,000 fine and 90 days' imprisonment; James Cavanaugh, of Southampton, $1,000 fine; Joseph Gullen, of Sag Harbor, $1,000 fine and thirty days in jail; William P. Brown, of Sag Harbor, $1,000 fine and thirty days' imprisonment; William Lyne, of Sag Harbor, $1,000 fine and sixty days' imprisonment; John Gibbons, of East Hampton, $1,000 fine and 90 days' imprisonment; John Cavanaugh, of Southampton, $1,000 fine and thirty days' imprisonment; Alice Lyne, of Southampton, $250 fine; Margaret Sturtevant, of Sag Harbor, $1,000 fine; Alber Brandt, of Greenport, $200 fine, and John J. Burns, of the same place, $200 fine.

AT LEAST TWO HUNDRED DEAD IN THE DARR MINE.

Six Bodies Removed From Scene of Explosion, but Rescuers Expect to Get All.

JACOBY CREEK, Pa., Dec. 20.—Up to 11 o'clock to-day but six bodies had been removed from the Darr Mine, the scene of yesterday's terrible explosion. Many more had been recovered, and as the work of the rescuers is progressing well it is thought the recovery of all the bodies is merely a matter of hours.

The exact number of men entombed when the explosion occurred is still uncertain, but there is no doubt that among the dead are at least 200, and as many as 300. The cause of the explosion is still unknown. No explanation other than that it was due to gas has been advanced.

Cal Leopold a "Royal Gallivante," BRUNSWICK, Dec. 20.—M. Elbers, Royalist, created a scene in the Belgian Senate yesterday by endorsing Deputy Vandervelde's recent attack on the King and saying the country is tired of Leopold's perpetual scandal. He called the King a "royal gallivante," always on his way to visit a "new family" in France.
